Dear Sir:

The remarks are submitted in response to the final Office Action mailed November 2, 2005.

This response is being filed within three months of the shortened period for response.

A fee transmittal is submitted herewith authorizing payment for the additional independent claims.

No new issues are raised and therefore no additional search is required. More claims are cancelled then newly entered. Applicants respectfully believe that the response places the application into condition for allowance and entrance is therefore requested. Alternatively, Applicants request entrance
